

St. Cecilia's Public School

C-12 Vikaspuri

Fruit chaat party

“A healthy mind lives in a healthy body” so to prove it true the school has conducted an activity – FRUIT CHAAT PARTY. Chef teachers cut the fruits and told the students about types of fruits, its seeds – few, one, many, eaten raw or peeled. Students enjoyed and had two servings for the party.

Lemonade party

The best drink of the season is “Lemonade” to quince the thirst & rich in Vitamin C. We Cecilians have lemonade party with the assistance of students as servers and attendants.

Western Dance Performance

Let's groove on musical tunes with tiny tots. As they shake their feet and body on the melodious western (English) songs. Dressed up all in beautiful colours like Red, Yellow, and Pink. They were all happy to be in make up and wear beautiful and vibrant colours.

English Poem Recitation Competition

Young poet/poetess are here to share their beautiful poems on topic My country, Our leaders, My favourite festival -To showcase their oratory skills they learn and recited well with above mentioned topics. Maximum kids participated with enthusiasm and confidence on stage.

Show and tell Competition

Our young Nursery musketeers are here to take away your breathe and make you love them for their drama. Students came with their favourite toys and were happy to bring it (toys) to school. Some students were even dressed up as their favourite characters.

Exhibition – Young angels at work

To show case the creative side, little chef with memories they shared with grandparents were beautifully crafted in photo frames, laminated on sheets best out of waste articles were displayed in exhibition for all the parents and have a nostalgic feel for the memories.

Celebration of Raksha Bandhan

It is the festival of brother and sister. Raksha Bandhan means bond of love between them through beautiful thread "Rakhi". The bond was celebrated in school with all the classes participation with activity of tying Rakhi to fellow mates – class mates and sharing chocolates with them.

Celebration of Janmashtami – Hathi Ghoda Palki

All Nursery students were dressed up as little Kanha's and Radha's to celebrate the birth of Lord Krishna, with dances from Nursery and Prep Guvala's and Gopi's. Prep students were also in beautiful Lehnga's and Kurta Pyjama's to celebrate the mood. They were given incentives to mark the day.