

St. Cecilia's Public School

Creative Writing Competitions

St. Cecilia's Public School held a creative writing competition for the students of class IX on 21 April, 2018.

Albert Einstein considered to be a pioneer figure in the field of education and schooling, encouraged the creative pursuits in life which at as the best exercise for the growth of one's mind. Keeping the same in consideration, it was observed that students tried their best to bring out the originality in their work.

Articles and Essays were written by students on the topics Education, Environment and Girl Child, They are extremely relevant in the context of the present times. All the participants, especially the prize winners could focus on the right agenda with the help of some statistical data, real life instances and multiple schemes which are in existence in the society.