Come October and the festive mood is in the air. To celebrate the victory of good over evil the students of class III C enacted on Excerpt from the 'Ramayana'. The dialogues, costumes and the enactment was commendable. Students performs with great enthusiasm. The audience enjoyed and gave a huge round of applause. The message that we should burn all our negative qualities was 'LOUD AND CLEAR'.

This was followed by a beautiful Garba / Dandiya dance by the students of Class V. Overall a very enjoyable and thought provoking assembly.
