

St. Cecilia's Public School Workshop for English Language Teachers

St. Cecilia's Public School organised an English Language Teaching workshop on 30.6.18 as an In house teacher training initiative for English Teachers. The workshop was conducted by Ms. Pooja Sharma and Ms. Ashmeet Kaur from the English Department of the school. The focus of the workshop was on strategic lesson planning and effective child centered teaching methodology.

The key focus of the session was to reduce the Teacher Talk Time, increase child centric approach, make teaching learning process more interactive and bring into practice the fundamental of Learning by Doing Activities to elaborate activity based teaching to develop effective reading habits were taken up. The concept of silent sustained Reading in classroom was discussed.

The teachers were motivated to harness the creative abilities of the students and develop the aesthetic love for learning a second language. The workshop put to place a fresh vigour and energy into the passionate teachers. The session was much appreciated by all.