No touch Workshop

The workshop was organized for students about –How to differentiate between ‘good touch’ and ‘bad touch’. Since this is a sensitive issue, Resource person was a trained on how to approach this sensitive issue in this workshop. The workshop was conducted on 20th & 21ST APRIL 2017 as suggested by Vice – Principal Madam. This workshop was organized in two different batches for different classes –2,3,4,&5. The workshop started with a warm welcome to student and followed by an icebreaking session and video showcase with plunk cards .

The areas that were discussed at length in the workshop was:

- Feelings of the child when abused
- What is Good touch?
- What is Bad touch?
- Good touch – Good feelings
- Bad touch – Bad feelings.
- Our body parts.

- Good touch areas.
- Bad/Unsafe/Danger touch areas.
- Whose fault is it?
- What the child should do when he/she is abused/ feels unsafe?

Students understood that-

1. Do not talk to strangers.
2. Do not accept/take anything from strangers.
3. Tell everything to your parents and the person whom you can rely on.
4. Do not hide anything from your mummy at any cost.
5. Learn to say firm-‘NO’.
6. Call for help. You can scream.
7. Believe in yourself that you have not done anything wrong.
