

St. Cecilia's Public School

Science Toon Competition

Science toon competition was held on 13 April 2017, in the school for all the students of class VI-VIII. Students actively participated in the competition. They showed conversation between two planetson the topics like globalization, greenery etc. The competition gave the children unique learning opportunity. Various colours and different ideas were used.

Students participated with great enthusiasm and made attractive posters.