

St. Cecilia's Public School

Cecilian Model UTSAV won first position at Zonal and Range Level Competitions organised by Delhi Traffic Police.

St. Cecilia's Public School, Vikaspuri was accolade at Innovation with Waste Material Competition organised by the office of the Assistant Commissioner of Police-Delhi Traffic. Students of class X Siddharth Aggarwal and Danish Saini won First prize for their model UTSAV – Unmanned Technical Support Automatic Vehicle, having diverse features such a voice control, remote sensing, live video telecast having direct connection to mobile phones of traffic personnel for technical support and easy surveillance.

The Zonal and Range Level Safety Awareness Campaign 2018-19. The dignitaries and jury members appreciated the cecilian team. At the Prize Distribution Ceremony at T T Park Punjabi Bagh, the cecilian team received First Prize and a cash prize of Rs. 6000/- for their creative efforts in utilization of waste material to create such a technical wonder.

Madam Principal encouraged the students to pursue exemplary work in the field of research and innovation.