As part of expression of our firm resolve to abolish the use of ‘Drugs and allied substances’, especially in context of the youth of our country , the Prahari Club launched the ‘Say No to Drugs – Anti Drug Abuse Pledge Campaign’ on 24.04.2026. All the students of classes IX to XII expressed their commitment towards making the vision of ‘Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan’ come true. Madam Principal, Madam Coordinator and all the teachers came out in full support of the campaign, to spread the message far and wide and to make this campaign a success. Prahari Club pledges to extend the Campaign dutifully and move with every single step possible in this direction to realise the big goal envisaged. Students took the pledge of spreading awareness to make the goal of this campaign , a living reality for our country.
