

St. Cecilia's Public School
Assembly on Labour Day
Class IV A
Date: May 2, 2024

Introduction:

The assembly organized by the students of Class : IV-A on Labour Day was a vibrant and touching tribute to the invaluable contributions of labourers in our society. It aimed to shed light on the diverse roles of helpers and workers while emphasizing the importance of respecting and appreciating their efforts.

Skit: Respect for All Work

The assembly commenced with a compelling skit illustrating the importance of respecting all forms of work particularly the maids who diligently maintain cleanliness in the school premises. The skit emphasized the message that no job is too small or insignificant, and every worker deserves admiration and respect for their contributions.

Student Presentations:

Several students dressed up as different helpers and took the stage to speak about the importance of their respective roles in our lives. Students portrayed various characters, including electricians, delivery boys, vegetable vendors, and cleaners, highlighting the dignity and significance of each profession. Their speeches resonated and fostered a deeper appreciation for the diverse workforce that sustains our daily lives.

Placards and Slogans:

The assembly also featured a display of colorful placards bearing slogans championing the rights and dignity of laborers.

Dance Performance:

The culmination of the assembly was a lively dance performance by the students, symbolizing unity and solidarity with workers around the world and encouraging the audience to join in the festivities.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the assembly conducted by Class 4A on Labour Day was a poignant tribute to the unsung heroes of our society. The students effectively conveyed the message of respect and appreciation for all forms of labor.