

St. Cecilia's Public School
Editorial Club
Extempore Competition Report
Class XII (Senior Wing)

The Editorial Club of St. Cecilia's Public School organized an engaging and insightful Extempore Competition for the students of Class XII on 9th May 2025. The primary aim of the event was to develop students confidence and help them become more comfortable with public speaking.

Participants were given 15–20 minutes to prepare, after which they had to present their thoughts for 1.5 to 2 minutes. The topics offered were both relevant and thought-provoking:

- Does the current education system support creativity?
- Exams: A true test of intelligence?
- Social media: A tool for connection or comparison?
- Privacy in the age of Instagram
- Stress and anxiety: The silent epidemic among teens
- Is peer pressure always negative?
- Life lessons we learn during school life
- Can money buy peace of mind?
- Is screen time stealing our dreams?
- The burden of masculinity: boys don't cry?
- Discipline: A bridge between goals and achievement!
- Climate change: Whose responsibility is it?
- Urban youth: disconnected from culture and traditions?
- Can honesty survive in the real world?
- Importance of Positive attitude
- What truly empowers a woman?

The students impressed the audience with their thoughtful insights and real-life connections to the topics. Each participant brought a unique perspective, making the event both informative and engaging. The audience listened attentively and showed appreciation through applause and encouraging remarks.

The judges addressed the gathering before declaring the results, offering valuable feedback and words of motivation to all participants. The event concluded on a successful and inspiring note, leaving both the participants and the audience with much to reflect upon.