Post that the students cited the special ingredients of friendship – sharing, kindness, supportive, loyalty, caring and happiness through famous quotes. The students continued the presentation with a beautiful poem on friendship – Friends at school..... They carried friendship placards and wore headgears to wish everyone with bright smiles.

After the poem, the students danced to a peppy song – I don't walk alone, I have my friends.... They moved and swayed with coordinated dance steps and much enthusiasm. One of the students explained each letter of FRIEND with meaning. The assembly was concluded with the golden quote – "Friends are more than one in a million, they are one in a zillion".
