Interclass Poetry Competition

St. Cecilia's Public School's Editorial Club organized an Interclass Poetry Recitation Competition for Class 8 on Veer Bal Diwas and the martyrdom of Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji. The event aimed to enhance students' oratory skills while honoring bravery, sacrifice, and spirituality. Students recited poems in English and Punjabi, expressing themes of courage, faith, and sacrifice. The participants highlighted Guru Tegh Bahadur Sahib Ji's supreme sacrifice to protect religious freedom. English recitations reflected themes of universal brotherhood, freedom, and resilience, while Punjabi recitations paid tribute to Sikh Gurus and their teachings. The listeners were deeply touched by the poems.

The winners of the competition were-

- (1) English Poetry: Alaina (VIII-C)
Prisha (VIII-A)
Simrit (VIII-D)
- (2) Punjabi Poetry: Gurnoor (VIII-D)
Deep (VIII-B)
Kanan (VIII-C)

The judges praised the students for their heartfelt performances and confidence. They also encouraged other students to continue exploring poetry as a way to express their thoughts and emotions. The event concluded with appreciation for the students and a reminder of the sacrifices of our spiritual leaders and young martyrs. It was a meaningful and inspiring competition.
