Wonderland of Dreams – Journey Across the Continents

The Pre-Primary Wing presented another enchanting chapter of the 'Wonderland of Dreams' series with the theme 'Journey Across the Continents' on Saturday, 10th October 2026.

The event was honoured by the presence of Director Sir, Madam Principal and Academic Advisor Ms. Nishi, whose encouragement uplifted the young performers.

The presentation proved to be a joyous and enriching experience, highlighting the self-assurance and zeal of our tiny learners. Through vibrant enactments, expressive gestures and interactive segments, the children embarked on a fascinating voyage across the globe, acquainting the audience with the splendour and multicultural richness of our planet.

Madam Principal applauded the dynamic energy and remarkable poise of our tiny tots. She highlighted that such presentations offer our children an excellent opportunity to look beyond the confines of their classrooms while fostering oratory abilities, creative thinking and self-reliance.

The event was a seamless amalgamation of education, fantasy and amusement.The programme culminated on a jubilant note, leaving the audience with fond recollections of our little stars and their stellar performances.

Overall, the presentations were a resounding triumph, celebrating the sheer delight of discovery and the boundless creativity of our young learners. The program was a testament to the school's unwavering dedication to nurturing young minds through ingenuity, confidence and enriching experiential learning.
