

St.Cecilia's Public School
The Girl in Red Hood
Cultural Presentation by Class Prep-B

St. Cecilia's Public School's Pre-Primary Wing (Prep B) riveted the audience with a spellbinding enactment of the timeless fairy tale 'The Girl in Red Hood' on 23.09.2025. The event centered around the paramount theme of 'Stranger Safety Awareness', expertly conveying the significance of prudence and vigilance in unfamiliar situations.

The program commenced with a warm welcome of the esteemed guests- Director Sir, Madam Principal, and Academic Advisor ma'am, who were presented with saplings by the students, symbolizing protection and care. The students, well-dressed in vibrant costumes, showcased their boundless creativity and artistic fervor through a captivating dance performance, perfectly synchronized to melodious songs sung by the students, mesmerizing everyone with their impeccable timing and energetic expressions. Each child was given an opportunity to participate, ensuring 100% involvement. The impactful visual narrative powerfully showcased the students' unwavering confidence as they delivered dialogues in front of the adult audience.

The grand finale was a masterful culmination of dance, drama and music that left the audience entranced. The parents were thoroughly enthralled by the students' remarkable talent and enthusiasm, making it a moment of unbridled pride for the school. The event drew to a close on a triumphant note, leaving an enduring legacy of wonder and delight in the hearts of all.
